Prelude

Welcome

Call To Worship

(Inspired by Psalm 19)

Let the words of our mouths and the meditation of our hearts be acceptable to you, Holy One, our rock and redeemer.

For we seek your presence, the company of this community, and the renewal of our minds and spirits.

Let the words of our mouths and the meditation of our hearts be acceptable to you, Holy One, our rock and redeemer.

For you impart wisdom, inspire joy, and instill hope as we reflect on the past, live in the present, and consider the future.

Let the words of our mouths and the meditation of our hearts be acceptable to you, Holy One, our rock and redeemer.

For wherever we gather in your name, we find holy ground; whenever we call you, we find a fresh encounter; however we know you, we find belonging. Praise God!

Hymn No. 38

“Morning Has Broken”

Gospel Reading

Mark 9:38-50

(pew bible pg. 1569-70)

Prayer of Transformation and New Life

Righteous God, we acknowledge the need for repentance and repair. We have confused seeking the common good with controlling our neighbor. We have conflated unity with uniformity. We have cosigned on societal norms that divide, segregate, and exclude rather than becoming agents of cultural change to bridge, welcome, and belong. Transform our hearts and stir our souls. Foster a spirit of curiosity, hospitality, and reconciliation to make things right with our neighbors, foes, and friends. Lead us on the path of belonging. Amen.

Offering

“O Splendor of God’s Glory Bright”

Morning Prayers

Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
